Early communication dates back to _______________ approximately ____________ years ago.

The Anasazi Indians drew _______________ approximately ____________ years ago. Other cave paintings have been found near France dating back to ____________ years ago.

Early people used cuneiform to write items including: __________________________.

What might a poem or letter during the time period in which cuneiform was used been about?

______________ is referred to as the “______________” and the birthplace of writing.

Following the fall of Egypt, Rome rose to power and the book trade grew. The cost of a book was _______________ ____________. People owned books as well as used _______________.

The _______________ was a period of time (____ years) characterized by a lack of knowledge development. Under the Medieval Church, monks served as ___________ and ___________ _______________ developed.

Based on your observations about hieroglyphs, write a word Egyptians may have regularly used and draw a symbol to represent it.

What might a poem or letter during the time period in which cuneiform was used been about?

What can you infer about Mesopotamia based on its nickname?

www.loc.gov
In 1450, _______ _________ invented an artificial writing (printing) machine modified from the wire press.

In 1517, Martin Luther sparked the _______ _________ with his protests of the Catholic Church.

With the _______ print made its way to the “new world” and colonial prints included: ____________________________

As a result of grievances to the King such as the _______ which placed an additional charge on all printed goods, new works emerged including _______ ________ and the _______ ________, both designed to support the fight for inalienable rights. A well noted colonial printer was ____________________________

Like that of the American Revolution, print played an integral role in the _______ _________ with the use of pamphlets, newspapers, and posters to support the fight for freedom from government injustice.

In famous printed works included Harriett Beecher Stowe’s _______ ________, The Origin of Species, and Harvest of Human Wisdom.

became addressed in 1735 by printer John Peter Zenger.

What amendment includes the freedom of the press and speech and where can this amendment be found?

In 1890, printing _________ led to the “__________” and ________________.

Over time printing became faster and in 1887 the _________ was introduced.

In the more recent past advancements included _______ images and cutting costs of printing due to ______________

• 3 examples of preserving the past-
• 2 examples of recording the present-
• 1 example of inventing the future-

Printing has served as a means to “__________ the past, ________ the present, and _________ the future.”